LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 5:39; sun sets 6:21. High water 3:54 a. m. and 4:58 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section generally fair.

AN OPPORTUNE ARRIVAL.—The timely appearance of two ladies of this city frustrated an attempted outrage near the old factory, in Alexandria county, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Emanuel Francis and a young lady friend had started out for a drive to Arlington, and had arrived in the bend of the road near the old factory when they were startled to see a horse and buggy standing near Four mile, run in which a young man and young woman were standing. The man was pointing a pistol at the woman's head, and when Mrs. Francis and her companion came in sight the terrified lady shrieked and jumped from the buggy into the run. The scoundrel who had been terrifying her with the pistol then caught hold of the reins of his horse and drove rapidly away. The Alexandria ladies immediately went to the rescue of the woman who had jumped into the run. They found her nervous system in a shocking condition, and it took some time to get her in a quiet frame of mind. The young woman then said she and the man were Washingtonians; that they had been keeping company for some time, and that heretofore she had no reason to suppose that her former escort was anything else than a gentleman. Yesterday he solicited her company for a buggy ride in Alexandria county, and arriving at the bend in the road, where he supposed they would be alone the true character of the man was soon manifest. She had resisted his solicitations and demanded to be taken home, when the brute undertook to bring the party to a close by drawing a pistol and placing the muzzle to her head. It was at this crisis that the Alexandria ladies drove up and frustrated the scoundrel in his brutal intentions. The young woman was placed in the buggy by her rescuers from this city and driven across Long Bridge to her home in Washington.

THE SEPTEMBER MOON.—The full moon which occurs nearest the autumnal equinox is popularly termed the harvest moon. This year its soft, benignant and mysterious light will shine at the full on the 25th, or three days after the sun has passed over the line. The peculiarity of the full moon which comes nearest the 23d or 23d of September is that it rises at nearly the same time for several nights in succession. A full moon always rises about the same time the sun sets, but on the evening following the day on which the moon reaches its full stage, it rises after sunset at periods ranging from a few minutes to more than an hour, depending largely upon the latitude. The intervals are shorter with the September moons than with those of the other months. The difference of time between successive risings of the moon after sunset, comparing the present with six months ago, practically disappears around the equator and increases with distance from that line. Around the time of the autumnal equinox the angle between the plane of the horizon and that of the ecliptic or the path which the earth traverses in its yearly journey around the sun, is smaller than it is at other times during the year. This is why the moon of that period seems to rise about the same time.

MRS. HERBERT'S SUPPOSED ASSAULTS.—It is said that the two men who attempted to commit an assault on Mrs. Hattie Herbert in this city one night last week, have been discovered in Fredericksburg, and are said to be residents of that place. They answer the description given by Mrs. Herbert, Chief of Police Webster, of this city, who received a letter from the mayor of Fredericksburg, has replied, asking that the two men be held until he can send for them. Lieutenant Smith proceeded to Fredericksburg this morning where Michael Gately and George Berry of that place were arrested and placed in charge of the Lieutenant who brought them to this city between eleven and twelve o'clock. At two o'clock the two men were brought before Mayor Strauss and Mrs. Herbert, who was present, was positive that neither of them assailed her, they in no wise answering the description of the men whom she encountered in her yard. Gately and Berry were released and furnished with tickets to their home in Fredericksburg.

THE ALEXANDRIA PEANUT ASSOCIATION was pleasantly entertained last evening at a "tackey party," given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Hudson to celebrate the birthday of their daughter Eva. Forty or more of the members in their unique apparel were a source of much merriment to the older people of the neighborhood.

As the evening wore away, a transformation scene took place and instead of tramps and vagabonds the company suddenly evolved itself into an assembly of well-dressed young ladies and gentlemen. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock and the festivities continued till the small hours of the morning.

Carlin and was thrown from the sully in which he was seated into the road. Mr. Chichester was considerably bruised, but he sustained no serious injury. Mr. Carlin heard Mr. Chichester's sully behind him and turned his own buggy quickly so the sully struck him; otherwise the damage might have resulted seriously to both of the vehicles and their occupants.
